

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

SALEM

Congregational Society Votes to Repair Church—Recent Contributions—Clubhouse Moved.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the home of the Misses Hurlbut last Thursday afternoon.

The Social club held their monthly meeting last Thursday evening.

Rev. R. H. Crawford of New Britain and W. F. Brooks, an architect of Hartford, were in town last Friday to lay out plans for the repairs and addition to the Congregational church.

Vote to Repair Church.

A special business meeting of the church was held last Friday afternoon. The meeting was called to order and opened with prayer by Nathaniel Clark. Mrs. Charles S. Ray was chosen to act as moderator and the question of repairing the church was discussed. The trustees were authorized to proceed at once with repairs and the following committee of three was appointed to aid and counsel with the trustees: Rev. R. H. Crawford, Deacon Albert Morgan and Edwin Harris. Rev. R. H. Crawford was made treasurer of the repair and building fund. It was voted to have the by-laws of the church printed so that copies could be placed in the hands of church officials. The minutes of the meeting were read by the clerk, Charles A. Williams and the meeting was adjourned sine die.

Additions to Fund.

Recent contributions to the building fund are as follows: Mrs. J. N. Harris $25, George S. Palmer, $20, Prof. R. A. Bruback $5, all of New London.

Sunday Services.

Rev. R. H. Crawford preached a most interesting and instructive sermon Sunday morning from the text found in Matthew 9: 9-13.

The Sunday school session was in charge of the assistant superintendent, Mrs. Florence Murray. The pastor announced that as a second prize for learning scripture he would give the book, Billy Sunday's Message. The scripture contest closes April 4.

The Christian Endeavor service in the evening was under the leadership of Arthur Kingsley. The pastor gave a helpful talk on How to Make This a Happier World.

Donald Meech and John Griffith of Mohegan are spending the week in town pruning and grafting trees at Hillside farm, owned by Ernest Rogers of New London. They are boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Murray were Norwich visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bailey spent Thursday of last week in New London.

Local Pupils Exhibit Papers.

Miss Katherine L. Ray was in Hartford last Saturday looking over the school exhibit. Among the papers exhibited are the essays of the pupils of the West Road school. Miss Susan Miner, Misses Violet and Helen Rogers and Miss Annie Schmucker of the Central school and Wellesley Hanney of the Harris district.

Clubhouse Moved.

The clubhouse belonging to the Social club was moved by members of the club Tuesday from its former location on land owned by Frank Rogers on Salem street to the plot of ground presented the club by Edwin and Frederick Harris on the East road. The building will be used as a wing to the new clubhouse, which will be erected at an early date. Oysters and hot coffee were served at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Miner. Mrs. Miner was assisted in serving by Mrs. Helen Malona and Mrs. Amy Tinker of New London.

FITCHVILLE

Special Town Meeting—Thirty-Five Citizens Vote to Reduce Tax From 15 to 13 Mills.

Edward Leary has been spending the past week in New York.

Mrs. Ed. Glassbrenner of Uncasville was a recent guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary May.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffey of Occum.

Mrs. Margaret Curley has returned to Norwich after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Francis Kinkadee. Miss Essey Popham has returned from Pittsfield, Mass., where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, John O'Brien.

Tax Reduced to 13 Mills.

A special town meeting was held in the town hall Monday afternoon to levy a tax for the ensuing year. The regular meeting for levying was held a short time ago, and as the town is steadily getting into debt it was decided to levy a mill tax. Twelve mills to be used for running the town and the remaining three mills to be used toward payment of the town's indebtedness. While the tax in the town of Bozrah has been among the lowest in the state, being 10 mills for several years past, the indebtedness has been steadily increasing, so that at present it is about $12,000. At the meeting a short time ago the voting was a tie so that the tax was reduced to 13 mills. In the mixup a wheel was smashed and Mr. Murray was left with broken glass.

Maple Sap Running.

Those who tapped their rock maple trees had a fine flow of sap this week. The frosty nights, together with the warm, clear days, are ideal. Sap, coffee, syrup and maple sugar of the pure article are the compensation for those engaged in this line of work.

Careless Match-Dropping Suspected.

The telephone brought together a quiet short time a good number of neighbors to act as firemen to subdue a stubborn blaze that had started in an open lot near the church Thursday. How the fire started was a mystery, but it was thought a traveler had carelessly dropped a lighted match.

A choir rehearsal was held at the close of the prayer meeting Wednesday evening, the music being for the Easter service, the first Sunday in April.

PRESTON

Gift of Ring for Lynwood Cray on 21st Birthday—Grange Meeting.

About 40 gathered at the home of Lynwood Cray Saturday evening, in honor of his 21st birthday. Eight tables of whist were played, Miss Margery Willis winning the first prize for the ladies and Beriah Burdick that for the gentlemen. Cakes, fruit and coffee were served, after which A. E. Shedd presented Mr. Cray, in behalf of the company, a birthday ring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Burdick, who have been living in Hanover the past

GRANDFATHER USED IT 50 YEARS AGO

CUTS A COLD SHORT

CHECKS A COUGH AT ONCE

DR. BULL'S Cough Syrup

PURE-QUICK-SURE

year, have moved to the Dwight Benjamin place.

In Favor of Farmers' Wives.

The grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with a good attendance. A solo was sung by Mrs. J. Richardson and an interesting paper was read by Miss Helen Miller, the subject being, "The Life of the Farmer's Wife More Monotonous Than the Lives of the Wives of Men of Other Occupations, in favor of farmers' wives." There were discussions by E. P. Barnes and A. B. Burdick and a quartette sung by four gentlemen closed the program. County Agent Murray D. Lincoln is expected to be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the grange, March 23rd.

Mrs. T. F. Purtil and Miss Anna Purtil, who have been spending several days at W. B. Cray's returned Thursday to their home in Westerly.

The Ladies' Aid society held a meeting at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon.

J. O. Cray was in Westerly Thursday.

Mrs. A. B. Burdick has been spending several days in Lisbon with her sister, Mrs. Nellie Adams.

OLD MYSTIC

Rev. O. G. Buddington Engaged to Supply at Baptist Church—Party for Thomas P. Welles—Union Temperance Service.

Rev. Osmar G. Buddington of West Mystic has been engaged by the pulpit committee of the Baptist church to supply for a few Sundays. He hopes to be able to conduct the prayer services during the week while supplying. The sermon for Sunday morning will be on the subject of Denominational day, which will be observed by the Baptist churches of the country on that date.

Union Temperance Service.

A union temperance service will be held Sunday evening with an address by the acting pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. Bandinot Seeley.

Hermann Rawlston of New York and Frederick Willey of Stafford were here Wednesday at the plant of the Mystic Woolen company of Old Mystic.

The Methodist United Workers met Wednesday afternoon in the parish house. Supper was served.

Getting Parsonage Ready.

The ladies of the Baptist church held an all day session at the parsonage Wednesday, cleaning house. The interior of the house is to be painted and papered that it may be ready for the next pastor and family.

Birthday Social.

A birthday social was held Friday evening in the Methodist parish house. An interesting program was rendered. Ice cream was for sale. The proceeds will be added to the lighting fund.

Albert A. Haley's store in Main street has been greatly improved by a new plate glass front.

John Hallisey has typhoid fever at Lawrence hospital, New London. The latest news reported a slight improvement.

Mr. Mason of Hartford was a business caller in the village Wednesday.

Louis Mitchell of Waterbury has been spending a few days here with his family.

Miss Susan H. Babcock has returned after ten days' visit to her sister, Mrs. Wallace A. Phillips of Bridgeport.

A number from here attended the meeting Wednesday evening of Stonington grange, held in the Road church parlors.

Mrs. Gilbert Ennis and Mrs. Eugene Wood of Westerly were guests Thursday of Mrs. Ennis' sisters, Postmistress L. Annette Tourjee and Mrs. Harriet Peckham.

First Birthday Party.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Welles gave a party Thursday, March 4th, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her son, Thomas Philip Welles. The guests were Mrs. Antone Leemis and Mrs. Joseph Francis of Norwich, Mrs. Manuel Clay and children, Mary, Willie and Lena, Mrs. William Clay and son Raymond, Mrs. John Davani and son John and Miss Clara Clay, all of Stonington, and Mrs. Mary Kenyon and son Roger of Old Mystic. Mrs. Antone Leemis, the little fellow's grandmother, made a birthday cake and presented the child with a received numerous other gifts. Ice cream, cake and candy were served.

Mrs. Nelson Holdridge and children, Mary and Minnie, have returned from a visit to relatives in New Haven.

The Missionary class conducted by Mrs. Bandinot Seeley, held the second meeting Thursday afternoon at the residence of Miss Mary H. Dean.

GOSHEN

Mail Driver in Exciting Runaway—Good Flow of Maple Sap—Telephone Sounds Fire Alarm.

David Murray, mail carrier on the R. F. D. route from Colchester that goes through part of Goshen, had an exciting runaway accident one day recently when the bridge broke and his team ran away. Mr. Murray delivers mail in a covered wagon and was unable to get out. The horses made a long distance on the route, until they met a team load of ties. In the mixup a wheel was smashed and Mr. Murray was left with broken glass.

Maple Sap Running.

Those who tapped their rock maple trees had a fine flow of sap this week. The frosty nights, together with the warm, clear days, are ideal. Sap, coffee, syrup and maple sugar of the pure article are the compensation for those engaged in this line of work.

Careless Match-Dropping Suspected.

The telephone brought together a quiet short time a good number of neighbors to act as firemen to subdue a stubborn blaze that had started in an open lot near the church Thursday. How the fire started was a mystery, but it was thought a traveler had carelessly dropped a lighted match.

A choir rehearsal was held at the close of the prayer meeting Wednesday evening, the music being for the Easter service, the first Sunday in April.

MONTVILLE

Rehearsals for Play—Pastors Exchange Pulpits.

A play entitled The Mistakes of Minerva is to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church at Palmer Memorial held weekly.

Miss Gertrude Rogers, who is teaching at Crescent Beach, spent the week end at her home in this village.

There will be an Easter concert at the Baptist church Sunday evening, April 4, under the auspices of the Bible society.

Rev. George C. Chappell preached at the Central Baptist church, Norwich, Sunday evening, March 7, in exchange with Dr. J. B. Slocum. The attendance was unusually large at all the Sunday services.

Supper Netted $18.

The Ladies' Aid society cleared $18 at their supper at the Baptist chapel recently.

The annual home mite box opening is to be held in the chapel of the Montville Baptist church Tuesday evening, March 16.

GLASCO

Methodist Church Requests Return of Rev. John Thompson—Pleasant Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society.

At the fourth quarterly conference of the Bethel Methodist church where District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich, presided, it was voted to request the return of the pastor, Rev. John Thompson for another year.

Ernest Luther and daughter, Gertrude, returned Tuesday from the west where they have been spending three weeks at the home of Mrs. Luther's parents, who have been seriously ill.

Peter Gautier has leased the Billings property in the south part of the town for a term of three years.

Rev. Samuel Thatcher, pastor of Jewett City Methodist church, was a visitor at the parsonage the first of the week.

Aid Society Entertained.

The Ladies' Aid society was very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. E. A. Clark, Wednesday afternoon. Selections on the phonograph furnished entertainment. The next meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. P. J. Gustafson. The work will be making aprons and quilts.

Friends of H. L. Luther were exceedingly sorry to learn of his illness from appendicitis at the hospital at the hospital in Springfield.

George Pitcher of Norwich was a caller on J. G. Bill W. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorpe of Westerly were week end guests at W. G. Burdicks, also Floyd Young of Sterling Hill.

Going to California.

Rev. Otis Green and wife are soon to sail for California. Mr. Green was a former pastor of the Bethel M. E. church.

Rev. John Thompson officiated at the funeral services of Mrs. Elam Kinney of Voluntown Thursday.

Mrs. Hall has as her guest, her niece from Ekinok Thursday.

Mrs. Palmer entertained her sister and other friends from Greenville on Sunday.

HAMBURG

Suffrage League Plans Dance—Exhibit of School Work.

Nathan Strong was in town the past week with his saw mill.

Miss Dora Reynolds is employed as a nurse in Ekinok.

Leon Tiffany is out after his recent illness.

Hamilton Bill returned to his home in Deep River last Tuesday.

The equal suffrage league is to give a dance the first of April.

The young ladies of the church met with Miss Ora Harding last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George Martin has gone to Hadley, Mass., for a short stay.

Exhibit of School Work.

The schools in town are to give an exhibit of their work in the public hall some time this month.

Mrs. C. F. Hall is visiting friends in Old Lyme.

C. M. Peck is painting "Red Gables," the residence of William Crook.

The directors of Lyme library held a quarterly meeting March 6th.

BOZRAH

Norwich Owner to Occupy Farm—Surprise Party for Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Lathrop.

John Morgan of Keene, New Hampshire, is helping Leroy Lathrop spray and trim his apple and peach trees.

Mrs. E. E. Lathrop spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gager of Norwich town.

Edward A. Bishop has purchased a new horse from Mr. Johnson of Bozrah.

Moving From Norwich.

Gideon Dickenson of Norwich is to move to his farm on Bean Hill this spring. Clarence Smith who is living on the farm is to move to Fitchville.

Surprise Party.

About twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Lathrop gave them a surprise party at their home Thursday evening. Games were played and sandwiches, cake, oranges and coffee were served.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Judge and Mrs. Albert K. Kneeland spent Tuesday at W. Henry Kneeland's at Columbia.

Mrs. Maria Haas has gone to St. Joseph's hospital in Williams for treatment for a hard cold.

The Busy Bee society gave an orange supper at the church Friday evening.

The young people of the Exeter church are working on a play which is to be presented at the church at an early date.

Mrs. Edwin P. Kneeland spent Thursday with friends at Lebanon.

Miss Myra Moffitt spent the week end at her home on Liberty Hill.

Rev. Elwell O. Mead was one of the speakers at a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. at Williamstown recently.

Mrs. E. O. Mead spent Friday night with Miss Myra Moffitt at Liberty Hill and attended the social.

HANOVER

A special temperance program will be given in the C. E. Sunday evening service under direction of the temperance committee.

The Young Crusaders' Mission Circle entertained the members of the Ever Ready club Friday evening at the vestry. Games were played and cream and cake were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Park spent Sunday in Danville, guests of Mrs. N. Lorne Greig.

Miss Edith Grant of New London spent Sunday in town the guest of Miss Gladys Crombie.

Windham County

WARRENVILLE

Moth Hunters Leave for Rhode Island—Bicknell Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Lewis A. Baker is critically ill.

Mrs. W. G. Brown is the guest of her uncle, Rev. E. P. Mathewson, in Ashaway, R. I.

John Scarborough of Westford lost a valuable horse last Sunday. It was hitched at a railing in front of William Pritchard's home when it dropped dead.

G. Burton Case is working in Williams.

The gypsy moth hunters who have been boarding with D. H. Shippee for several weeks went to Rhode Island Saturday.

Glee Club Concert.

The Glee club from C. A. C. gave a fine entertainment to a large audience in Baker's hall Friday evening of last week.

Ether Hattin of Chaplin visited the school in this village Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Barlow and two chil-

Chance of a Life Time To Get This Famous Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet

SAVE $2.50

Beginning today, for one week only, The Hoosier Manufacturing Company permits us to sell the "WHITE BEAUTY" at $2.50 less than the low cash price established by the Hoosier Company. Regular Hoosier prices are remarkably low. This reduction means an unheard-of bargain.

"White Beauty" Delivered for $1.00

Then $1.00 weekly soon pays the balance. Your money back if you're not delighted with it. No extra fees. No interest. Just the cash price less $2.50.

Saves Miles of Steps for Your Tired Feet

You now must carry things from your cupboard and pantry to your table and back again at every meal. This means MILES OF STEPS. The Hoosier saves all these because it combines everything AT YOUR FINGERS' ENDS. You can sit down in front of the Hoosier and do nearly all your work. You save energy by saving steps. You have more leisure.

Has 40 Labor-Saving Features—17 New

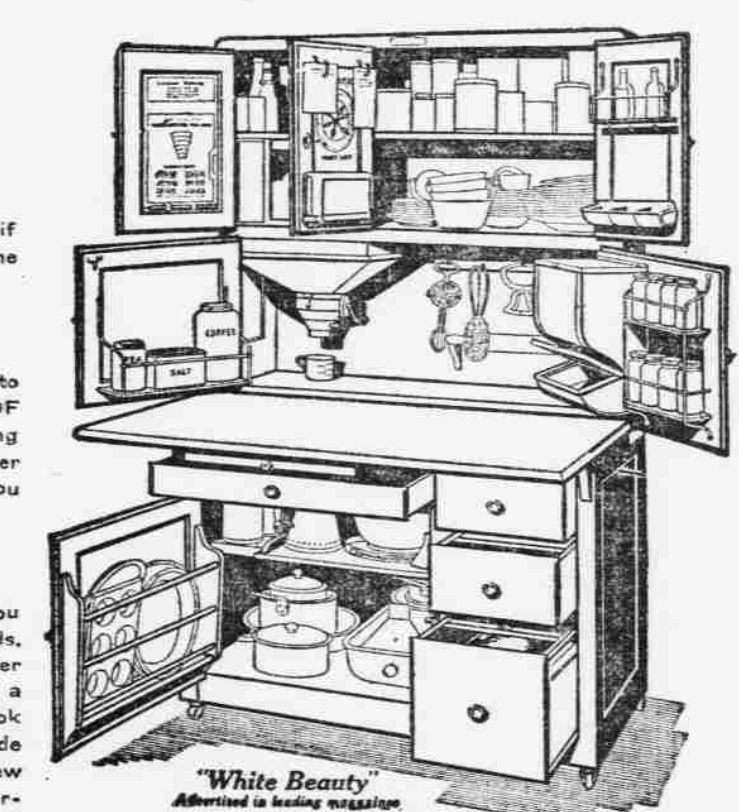

This "WHITE BEAUTY" gives you a real scientific kitchen. You can put 400 articles in this new Hoosier, every one at your fingers' ends. The cabinet includes the patented SHAKER flour sifter—only after made that shakes flour through instead of grinding it. It also has a complete accounting system; a cook-book holder that keeps your book always open in front of your eye; Mrs. Christine Frederick's Food Guide that answers the question, "What shall I have for dinner?" The new all-mental bread and cake box has double capacity, due to improved arrangement, and the work table is of pure aluminum.

TAKE FIVE MINUTES TO DECIDE NOW

Come in today early—examine these new Hoosiers carefully—then decide whether you want to buy now while you can save $2.50, or later when you cannot buy below the regular set prices; decide whether you can afford to waste the energy you now spend in walking in your kitchen, when a single dollar will bring you the Hoosier today.

Remember—that after this sale the "WHITE BEAUTY" goes 800,000 Hoosier Cabinets have been sold. "WHITE BEAUTY" is the finest Hoosier made. To double the sale of this one cabinet quickly, the Hoosier Company authorizes this sale in 1000 picked towns. THIS IS TRULY THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME for a few women only. Our allotment is strictly limited.

back to the regular price. Remember—that the new Hoosier Club may be entirely filled the first or second day of this sale. Come at once and enroll your name. Try the Hoosier in your kitchen. Then, if you will part with it, we will gladly refund your dollar. Come early. Other women are making up their minds now.

Schwartz Brothers

"The Big Store With The Little Prices"

9-11 Water Street

Telephone 965

dren called on Mrs. E. L. James Friday of last week.

Silver Wedding.

Deacon and Mrs. Z. B. Bicknell quietly celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Friday, March 12th.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Local Interest in a New London Engagement—Woolen Mill on Full Time—Upper Mill Started.

Friends were interested in the engagement of Miss Cleona Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Noble, to Robert Bindloss, both of New London, announced at a shower given by Mr. Bindloss' sister, Miss Irene Bindloss, in New London Saturday.

Miss Noble is well known here, where she has often been a visitor with friends.

Stanthrop has returned to his duties at Brewster's store, having been away two weeks on account of the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Jonas Stanthrop.

Father Dies in Germany.

Louis Sedusky and sisters have received the news of the death of their father in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lambert and son George were in Putnam Tuesday on account of the death of Mr. Lambert's father, Peter Lambert.

Elmer Rich has returned from a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. Amos Peck, in Rehoboth, Mass.

G. Frank Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., has returned from a visit to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Barber of Rockyville, R. I., where he has been visiting at William Dean's.

Mrs. Ebe Huntington has returned to her home in Putnam after a visit with her son, Ebe Huntington.

Mrs. John McDonald and daughter Myrtle of Norwich spent Saturday with Mrs. McDonald's sister, Mrs. John Frances.

John Kelley spent Sunday at his home in Sterling.

Local people were in Danielson Saturday to attend the opening of the Danielson Trust company's new banking rooms.

Mrs. Olive McDonald has moved to the brick house at Ladd's Corner.

The Woman's Missionary society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Simmons Monday afternoon.

Frank H. Tillinghast was in Williamstown Friday.

Quarantine Raised.

Mrs. Clarence Peterman has recovered from diphtheria and the family is out of quarantine.

Alfage Touillon of Woonsocket has been the guest of friends here, where he formerly lived.

Miss Beatrice Seguin returned Monday from Boston, where she has been spending several days with her sister, Miss Rose E. Seguin, a student at the New England Conservatory of Music.

Her sister, Miss Odna Seguin, taught school for her during her absence.

Samuel Collins has moved his family here from Warren, R. I., where they have been living the past year.

Both Mills Running.

The Plainfield woolen mill shut down Thursday night for the remainder of the week and started Monday morning on full time and also started the upper mill, known as the Little Brick mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frances have returned to their home in Westerly, R. I., after visiting Mr. Frances' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frances.

Mrs. Walter Wright has returned to her home in Worcester, Mass., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFarland.

Mrs. George Rouse, who has been seriously ill with acute indigestion, is recovering.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Herman J. Persenhem, who has been spending the winter in Boston, returned to the Valley Tuesday.

James H. Fisk of Holden, Mass., a former resident, has been visiting the family of John Arnold.

Miss Edith M. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Keach spent Friday in Southbridge, Mass.

Harold Barrett, who is working in Springfield, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Cora Barrett.

Several from here attended the clam chowder supper and social at the Baptist church at West Woodstock Friday evening.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall motored to Bridgeport Friday.

Harold Bowser of Providence and Ruth Dexter of Franklin were visitors at Fred Dexter's Sunday.

John Wood of Plainfield was a visitor at G. W. Barlow's recently.

Miss Gertrude Hall of Putnam was a week end visitor at the Oaks.

Mrs. Ebe Huntington, who fell and injured her hip, is gaining.

Byron Place of Foster visited friends in this place Sunday.

George F. Barber of Woody Hill and Mrs. E. C. Kenyon of Rockyville, R. I., have been visiting at the Oaks.

NORTH STERLING

N. J. Wood is confined to his home by a severe grip cold.

George Pierce is out with a new horse to replace one he lost recently.

The bean supper held at the home of P. O. Plummer March 2 was well attended, 50 taking supper.

A number of forest fires could be seen from this place the past week.

Matthew Woods of Foster Center, R. I., called on friends here Tuesday.

A number of fine flocks of quail have lived through the past winter, which has been bad for the birds, owing to much ice on the ground for a long time.

PACKER

Miss Carmelia Gamble from Providence, R. I., spent the week end with Mrs. W. J. Tilley.

Mr. Durry spent Tuesday in Norwich.

Albert Millard has recently moved into one of the company houses.

T. J. Brown was in Norwich Thursday.

Franz Mayer has been spending several days in Middletown.

Miss Evelyn Browning visited friends in Norwich Tuesday.

Mr. Lagassay spent Sunday with Mr. Simino.

WOODSTOCK

Funeral of Miss Ada Bell Miller—Planning New Palmer Memorial Hall.

F. W. Hinrichs of New York was in town over Sunday.

The Ladies' Missionary society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Joseph Spaulding.

Ada Bell Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Miller, died at St. Vincent's hospital in Worcester after an operation for appendicitis. The funeral was held Friday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. F. B. Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and her four brothers have the sympathy of the community.

The Christian Endeavor society was led Sunday evening by Helen Perley and Marion Perkins.

Reading Circle Meets.

The Maple Crest Reading circle met Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Prink. The Life and Works of Will Carleton was the subject for the evening.

The architect of the Palmer Memorial hall and Contractor Watson were in town Wednesday looking over the site of the new hall.

W. H. Lester attended the automobile show in Boston Monday.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Social Hour Follows Missionary Meeting—Lawson Place Changes Owners.

A missionary meeting was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Chester E. May. Devotional exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Turner. The topic for the afternoon was from the text book The Red Man's Land and was in charge of Mrs. A. G. Morse, assisted by Mrs. F. A. Jones.

A social hour followed, refreshments being served by the hostess.

Mrs. Annanda Lawson and daughter Phoebe will move soon into Mrs. Phoebe Weaver's house. Ernest Hibbard expects to take possession of the Lawson farm March 16th.

Harry Cady is moving from the mill house to his home near the Thompson line.

The Community club purchased a nice upright piano in Putnam and placed it in the hall last Friday.

THOMPSON

Miss Sarah Crosby is at her home for the present.

George Crosby is critically ill at the Day Kimball hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Mills who has spent several weeks with her sister in Dorchester has improved in health very

Safe and Sure

should be your relief from indigestion, biliousness, or constipation. Known to be reliable and famous for their prompt and certain efficacy—are

Beecham's Pills</